

Living Well - April Privileged Offers for You

Café Siam offers great Thai classic that you would expect to find at food stalls in Thailand at good-value prices. With a large wooden façade, a simple interior and emphasis on the food, the design of Café Siam is reminiscent of the Thai shop-houses that line streets of Bangkok.

The warm, casual ambience at Café Siam is perfect for either a bite alone or with a large group enjoying and soaking in the "sanuk" - which means "fun" in Thai. Enjoying fine Thai cuisine does not have to be formal and expensive.

Café Siam has been selected as one of the recommended restaurants in Michelin Guide Hong Kong Macau 2009.
